Closing remarks

WELCOME

DANCING FANS

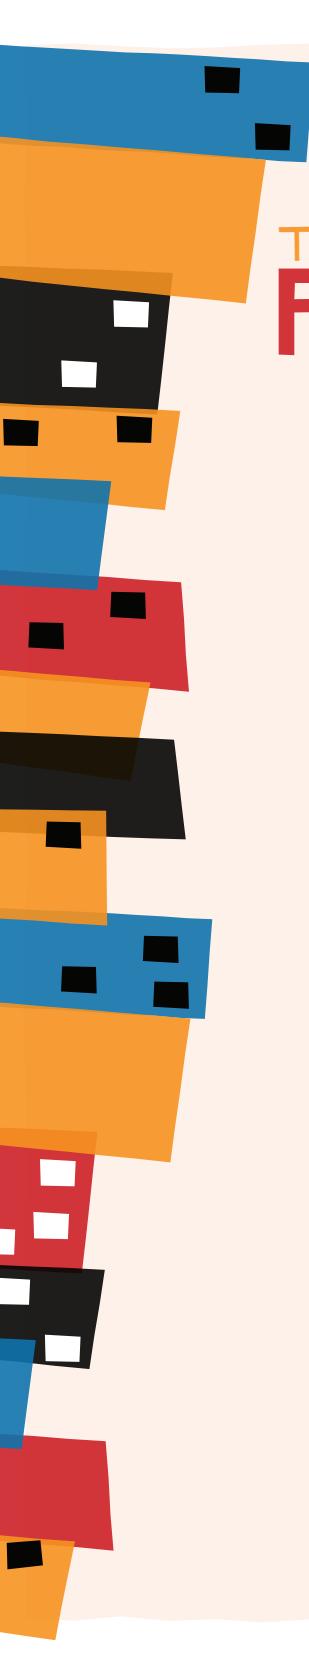

We would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the overwhelming support of our sponsors, donors and attendees. We would also like to personally thank the amazing dedication of our dancers. Without each and every one of our supporters this event would not be possible and we cannot thank you enough.

Every one of the dancers on the dance floor tonight is here to represent a specific charity. They have donated so much of their time and deserve our respect and admiration. We ask that you stop to thank them every chance you get. It takes a lot of courage to dance in public and we applaud their efforts.

Enjoy the event, we are so glad you came!

Sincerely,
Dancing with the Brokers Committee

THE BOX IT FOUNDATION

A Desire to give something back to the community led to the creation of the Broker Boxing Federation (BBF) in 2003. Which, to this date, has raised over 1.8 million dollars for local Chicago charities. Following those same convictions and a desire to give to a more diverse list of organizations prompted Eric Nixon to found the Box It Foundation.

The Box It Foundation is dedicated to the people of Chicago and supporting those in need. Each year the Foundation will distribute the money raised by BBF and other Foundation hosted events to select local charities. The Foundation is not a private agency, but relies on donations of time, money, and your support to make it work. We look forward to being able to continue to offer DWTB as a fundraising event.

WELCOME TO THE WELL

The Well Resource Center was founded by Matt Blair and his wife Audra Blair in 2017. The Well is a 501c3 non-for profit organization that exists to be with and for our immediate community by creating need-based programs. These programs are designed to help develop spiritual, relational, emotional and physical health of our community. Programs such as sports leagues, cooking classes, and job readiness classes.

The Well provides safe community environments for Chicago Police Officers, Fire Fighters and emergency workers to improve their emotional, relational, physical and spiritual health. Chicago's Northwest side is home to more than 20% of Chicago's protective services workers. The Well provides professional counseling services, affordable sports programs, and community building opportunities for first responders and their families. These programs are designed to combat the stresses that the first responder community deals with daily.

The Well also provides cooking classes designed to use food as a tool to build relationships and to encourage healthy living. Our focus is cooking savory, inexpensive and nutritious food and equipping people to take on challenges in and out of the kitchen.

The Well uses sports to provide a space to engage two practical needs; physical exercise and community. The Well uses youth and adult basketball programs to engage in conversations with its neighbors and to learn more about community needs that The Well may provide resources for. We use sports as a tool as a tool to build and teach confidence, compassion, character and community.

The Well will provide quarterly job readiness workshops, lead by human resources professionals, to train people on resume writing, interviewing and networking skills to navigate job searches effectively.

MEET OUR DANCERS

JACK O'BRIEN
THE TELOS GROUP
JUVENILE DIABETES
RESEARCH FOUNDATION

Jack's dance instructors could tell from an early age that he had that special something, that sparkle, that ability to mesmerize the audience with his swagger. "Jack's grace and speed mixed with flawless choreography is unmatched in the international dance scene today" says Russian great, Mikhail Baryshnikov. The DWTB event will certainly be a highlight in his long history of performing and JDRF will be sure to benefit.

RENAE BRADSHAW
SAVILLS STUDLEY
CHICAGO YOUTH CENTERS

Renae may have a leg up on the competition with one of her routines, a toe-tapping mash-up of country-western styles. "You don't get out of Texas without mastering the two-step and country swing," says Renae. Raised in a musical family in Dallas, she loved performing in high school productions of Grease, Mame and Little Shop of Horrors. But watch out for her cha-cha/rumba mash-up – her rivals think she's the dark-horse contender at this year's DWTB.

MEET OUR DANCERS

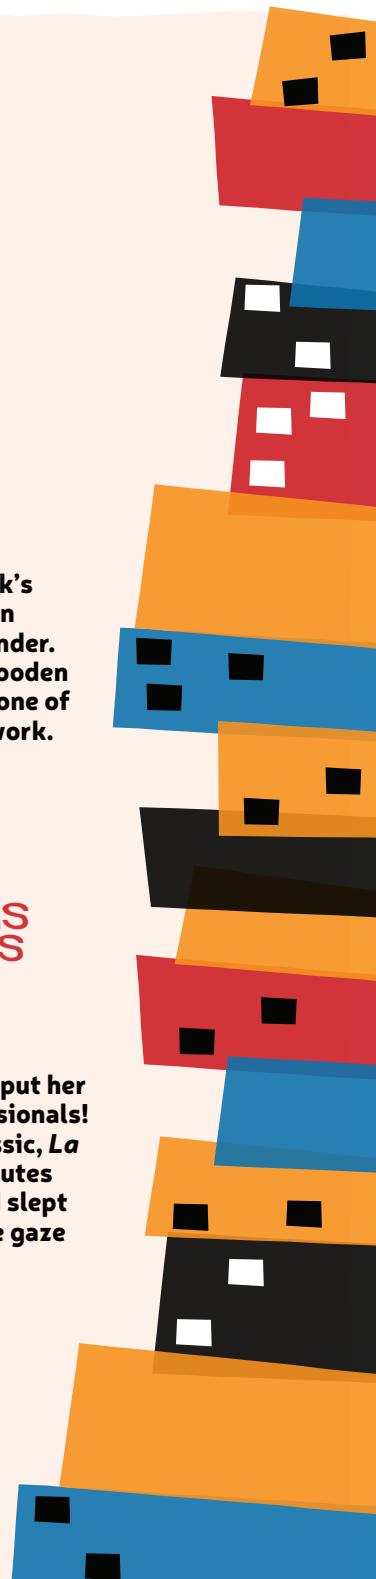

CLARK EVANS
JLL
CRADLES TO CRAYONS

Clark has been channeling the mantra of “Wild and Wonderful”, the slogan of his home state of West Virginia, as inspiration for his dance routines. Clark’s unmatched energy, insatiable thirst for competition and sheer grittiness make him a formidable contender. Fun fact: a fire spontaneously combusted on the wooden dance floor at Arthur Murray Dance Studio during one of Clark’s practices when he was perfecting his footwork.

MICHELLE HERON-MEANS
INTERIOR INVESTMENTS
SOCIAL WORKS

Michelle's lack of dance experience will seemingly put her at the bottom of this skilled group of dance professionals! Her forever dance inspiration is the cult movie classic, La Bamba and Saturday Night Fever where she attributes most of her dance skills to! Not to be outdone and slept on, she intends to grasp the crowd with her intense gaze and her hips don't lie movements.

MEET OUR DANCERS

TONY COGLIANESE CBRE MICHAEL J FOX FOUNDATION

From middle school talent shows to crashing wedding dancefloors, Tony Coglianese has been preparing for this moment his entire life. He has a high-octane motor on his feet that never quits and tonight we will get to see it in full force. When asked if he and Kaylee were the underdog pick of the event, Tony responded "Nobody puts baby in a corner." Tony will be dancing tonight for the Michael J. Fox Foundation in honor of his Grandfather to help cure Parkinson's Disease.

VICTORIA NAVARRO ADVOCATE HEALTH CARE ADVOCATE HEALTH CARE BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SERVICES PROGRAM

I think of myself as the modern-day renaissance woman, at least in some small degree. I am not one of those people who knows exactly what I want to do when I grow up. I am a seeker and it's through continual exploration and a willingness to walk down different roads that I fulfill my curiosity. It's time for modern-day renaissance women and men to realize their passions and honor their thirst for knowledge. I believe there is a reason why we are drawn to certain things. It's in the search for those things that you will discover your purpose and create a life that you love. Dancing in this competition is an indulgence in my natural urge to seek, learn and honor my zest for life!

MEET OUR DANCERS

ANDY CHRISTENSEN
PARTNERS BY DESIGN
GREATER CHICAGO
FOOD DEPOSITORY

Andy's a complicated man, with an uncomplicated dance philosophy, "I learned how to Pop 'n Lock in less than eight years, what makes you think I can't master the Tango in a couple of hours?" Everything Andy has ever done, was done for the music that lives in his head and that music is the soundtrack to Save the Last Dance starring world renowned dancer Julia Stiles, so you know he's serious. With the moves of Kevin Bacon, the charm of Napoleon Dynamite and the intensity of Alfonso Riberio you will all witness the Domino fall as Andy and Ellen moonwalk the top prize right over to the Chicago Food Depository.

MARINA ZELENKOVA
CBRE
A SAFE HAVEN FOUNDATION

When asked "What got you interested in participating in DWTB this year?", Marina responded "I was born to dance and plan to use this as a jump start for my participation in So You Think You Can Dance on FOX". "Most importantly, I'm excited to have fun while supporting a great cause – A Safe Haven". Marina is looking to dominate the competition with her smooth moves on the dance floor from the Viennese Waltz to the Paso Doble.

MEET OUR DANCERS

JAKE DOMINA
POWER CONSTRUCTION
MILITARY ORDER OF THE
PURPLE HEART - CHAPTER 252

With his blend of silky smooth style and pin-point moves, Jake's ready to take his dancing from streets to the seats.

Drawing on his musical love of storytelling, with the vision of his amazing partner, his dances will come to life in a way that will enthrall & captivate the audience; leaving them longing for more. The stage is like a living room couch for Jake, he'll dance to victory as cool as a windy city breeze; lighting the palace on fire and strutting away with that trophy in tow.

KAREN CARCAMO
CUSHMAN AND WAKEFIELD
FEED MY STARVING CHILDREN

Combining natural born Latin heat with a world champion instructor may yield a force to be reckoned with. Karen's inspiration to join the competition was a combination of personal challenge and excitement. Her instructor challenged her every step of the way and she has worked hard to prepare for tonight, we can't wait to see the results.
